MENTORSHIP

Mentorship in education involves a relationship between two people where the mentor plays a supportive and advisory role for the student, the mentee. This relationship promotes the development and growth of the latter's skills and knowledge through the former's experience. The mentorship programme has been introduced to encourage bonding and arrest the problem of students increasingly becoming strangers to their teachers and vice versa. The programme is to increase the awareness of teachers as second parents to the students rather than guardians.. Thus, the teachers relate more cordially with the students on regular basis, identifying their personal and academic problems and proffering solutions to them. The essence of mentorship program is to ensure that our students are psychologically, mentally and physically balanced for them to be more academically focused. Mentorship programme has become a bond between teachers and students. The college has recently introduced mentoring in which, the entire students body has been split into small manageable numbers and shared to each teacher in the college to mentor them. The teachers take the responsibility of mentoring the students in these areas:

- Their social lives
- Their spiritual lives
- Their academic performances
- Their extra-curricular participations.

MID-TERM EXAMINATION "Proper assessments tell us how well a child is growing in the three dimension of knowledge and learning; psychomotor, affective and cognitive domains. A 100% in a report card simply means, a child has progressed at an amazing speed and rate in the course of the term. towards enhancing students performance and consolidating teachers' in the successes in the classroom, the college has introduced mid-term examination to replace the first and second tests. This is aimed at improving our students reading culture and all - time preparedness for academic exercises since students read more when they have examination at hand. The result of midterm examinations will be available to parents during the open day activities.
